COLORED EDUCATOR WANTS MORE COOKS FOR HOMES

Appeal for Cooks From Citizens Exhausts Colored Domestic Science Classes.

Prof. W. H. Humphrey, of the Colored High School, today issues this appeal for cooks:

Many good white families have asked me recently to secure colored help for them—that is, cooks. I would like very much to have these good white ladies get the help they have asked for, since they are strong supporters of our Domestic Science department and are exceptionally nice persons to work for.

Twenty-one of our girls in the Domestic Science department are working out and we could place as many more girls in good homes if we had the girls. Some of our best colored women are cooks in good white homes. These colored women are not ashamed to be called cooks for they are good ones.

Good cooking is a profession and there are many good white homes in this city who give their colored help the very best treatment.

E. L. MARCH KILLED BY GRANDFATHER OF WRONGED GIRL

Wealthy Lexington Merchant Is Fatally Shot By Man Whose Granddaughter Claims She Was Mistreated.

Ernest L. March, wealthy business man and Lexington furniture dealer, was shot fatally in the yard of The Britling, an apartment house which he owned in that city, by George Rose, 65 years old, a constable, at 4:15 o'clock, Thursday afternoon.

Mr. March died at the St. Joseph's hospital twenty minutes later. He is 49 years old, and his widow was Miss Eva Moss, a former Maysville woman. Rose refused to make any statement regarding the shooting. Shortly before 5 o'clock he was moved to the county jail by Detective Dudley Veal, and Patrolman Carl Woodward. On his surrender to police a charge of malicious shooting was placed against him, which was changed to murder, following March's death at the hospital.

The shooting, which resulted in the death of March is the outcome of an assault which March is alleged to have committed against Rose's granddaughter, Mary Margaret Rose, 14-year-old girl, on charge of which March was under indictment in the Fayette circuit court.

March's trial was set for Monday, October 11.

G. P. Morrison a coal man who resides at The Britling apartments, was in the yard at the time the shooting occurred and was but a short distance away from the principals.

"Don't do that," was the only exclamation March made before he was shot, according to Mr. Morrison, who made an effort to grab Rose after he had fired the first shot.

In describing the shooting, Mr. Morrison said:

"I was standing in the front yard and Mr. March was at the side of the house talking with a man from the telephone company who was fixing the wires leading into the house. I heard Mr. March exclaim, 'Don't do that,' and looked up and saw a man advancing across the lawn with a revolver in his hands."

"As Mr. March said this the man opened fire, and Mr. March staggered around the tree. I made a grab for the man but missed him and he followed Mr. March around the tree and shot him several times more. Mr. March fell to the ground and the man immediately walked down the street."

Fire Chief Ruliff Newell and Mr. Daniel Shafer, of this city, were in the neighborhood at the time of the shooting and reached the scene before Mr. March was removed to the hospital.

The Cause.

Mrs. Ben Tucker, mother of Mary Margaret Rose, made this statement Thursday afternoon:

"While Mary Margaret was working at the drug store where she was employed a woman came to the soda fountain one morning and after purchasing a drink asked just how much money she was making at her present employment. On being told $12 a week, the woman stated that she knew where she could get more money and the work would be easier. My daughter inquired where such a position was open, and the woman replied 'at Mr. E. L. March's.'"

"During her noon hour she went to the store on West Main street. Mr. March was standing at the door and at the inquiry for work, replied: 'Oh, yes, I remember the woman who spoke to you.' They started, she thought to his office. Getting on the elevator, Mary Margaret and Mr. March went to the third floor and they walked from the rear of the building toward the front, where the attack took place."

"Mr. March threatened her if she told and offered her $20, which she refused."

THROUGHS AT DEPOT TO HEAR SPEAKERS THURSDAY P. M.

Colonel Roosevelt and Governor Morrow Address a Great Crowd of People—Late Train Interferes With Plans For Big Rally.

Because the train carrying the distinguished speakers scheduled for the big Republican rally here Thursday afternoon, was more than an hour and a half late, plans for the rally were greatly interfered with and the speakers were unable to leave their train to come to the court house square as had been planned.

That the great number of people in the city would not be entirely disappointed, however, the local Republican leaders obtained the railroad company's permission to hold the train for 15 minutes at the local depot and a great crowd gathered there to hear the addresses of these prominent visitors.

Governor Morrow presented Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, introducing him as a Real Roosevelt. He said he was not of the "Bevo" kind such as the Democrats were carrying over the country by a REAL Roosevelt. The Colonel launched into a discussion of the League of Nations, the chief issue in the present campaign. He called attention to the Democratic slogan in the last campaign, "He Kept Us Out of War" and he said the Democratic claim for the League of Nations was about on a par with that slogan. Instead of keeping us out of future wars, the Colonel said, the League of Nations was an agreement to drag us into European disagreements of all kinds. He quoted a French officer and the representative of one of the European nations in the League of Nations conference as relying upon America's military force. Although he was unable to speak for any length of time, Colonel Roosevelt made a great impression upon his audience. He too flayed the League of Nations, the campaign's chief issue and again brought to the attention of the voters that England, through her colonies was given six votes in the assembly to America's one vote. He showed that America was put in the same class with Siam and Hadjaz when it came to its voting power in the assembly. It was quite unfortunate that the train pulled out before the Governor was able to finish his talk.

Gov. Morrow, in his usual custom, pleased his audience. He too flayed the League of Nations, the campaign's chief issue and again brought to the attention of the voters that England, through her colonies was given six votes in the assembly to America's one vote. He showed that America was put in the same class with Siam and Hadjaz when it came to its voting power in the assembly. ## OHIO CONGRESSMAN SPEAKS AT ABERDEEN SATURDAY

Hon. C. C. Kearns Will Be Chief Speaker at Republican Rally at Aberdeen Saturday Evening, 7:30 O'clock.

There will be a Republican rally held at Aberdeen on next Saturday evening beginning promptly at 7:30 o'clock and the chief speakers will be Hon. C. C. Kearns, at present representative of that district in Congress, and Hon. Walter Remley, editor of the Georgetown Gazette and prominent Brown county Republican.

Congressman Kearns, is his party's nominee for re-election this fall and much interest is being shown in his race this year. He has made the district a splendid representative at Washington and there is little doubt but that he will be returned to Washington by a good majority. Mr. Kearns is a very interesting speaker and everyone is cordially invited to hear him no matter to what political party they belong. A special invitation has also been extended the women.

At the rally the Maysville Boys' Band will play a concert. This will attract many out and one of the biggest crowds that have visited Aberdeen in recent years is expected.

COUNCIL INSPECTS PAVED STREETS.

Members of the Maysville City Council as a committee of the whole, inspected the asphalt street in the Sixth ward this afternoon that they might officially accept it and pay the contractor his money for the construction.

New Ark, N. J., October 8.—Newark, Jersey City and surrounding towns was startled shortly after 10 o'clock by a mysterious explosion. Police and county authorities have been unable to learn the location of the blast.

Lee, Winter & Co. are the first merchants in town to receive a shipment of Big Sandy sorghum, $1.50 per gallon. 8 Oct 6.

Many in the large audience were disappointed that Hon. Richard P. Ernst and Mrs. Christine Bradley South were unable to talk because of the short time given the party here. The Maysville Boys' Band furnished music both in front of the court house and at the depot.

MISS MARY WILSON ELECTED STATE S. S. SECRETARY AT MEET

Maysville Woman Honored at State Convention — Next Meeting To Be Held at Newport.

A plea for "religious instruction" marked the closing session of the fifty-eighth annual convention of the Kentucky Sunday School Association Thursday. The convention has been in session at the Highland Presbyterian church in Louisville since Tuesday, with several hundred Sunday school workers from all parts of the state attending.

"Some persons are trying to bring Heaven down to us and others are trying to raise hell on earth," declared the Rev. Dr. William A. Ganfield, president of Centre College, in his address on "Recent Developments in Religious Education."

Pointing out the unsettled condition of Russia and the spread of Bolshevism as a result of the activities of those "trying to raise hell on earth," as opposed to the work of the church, Dr. Ganfield urged church people to get behind the movement to develop Christian education throughout the world.

A resolution was passed recommending the addition of Bible study to high school curricula and urging that colleges give credit for this subject. M. T. McElowney, Winchester, was re-elected president of the association. Other officers elected are Vice president, Judge Otto Wolf, Newport, and convention secretary, Miss Mary Wilson, Maysville.

At a luncheon of the Administrative Committee at the Hotel Henry Watterson ten members were elected to the Executive Committee to serve three years. They were Joseph Burge, the Very Rev. R. L. McCready, William Herman, C. J. Meddis and J. B. Weaver, Louisville; Leo Birk, Owensboro; C. H. Greer, Paris; Dr. Ganfield, Danville; H. H. Cherry, Bowling Green, and J. W. Thacker, Georgetown.

Newport won the 1921 convention. After the vote delegates from Hopkinsville and Winchester, who were trying to land the convention, moved that the decision be made unanimous, which was done by a rising vote.

IN THE MIRE AGAIN

The Democratic machine in Kentucky is the same old machine. With the nice, new front it put on a few weeks ago, many believed it really had changed its colors. But alas it has proven a false-face. The same old machine, coated with trench-paint!

After the decisive defeat it has suffered, after the stinging rebuke it has received from the people of this state on more than one occasion, many had been led to believe that it would reform. Democrats who believe in cleaner and better things hoped the change would come.

But it is the same old machine.

In the memorable campaigns of the past decade, that same old machine has made its presence felt by certain practices which by no means served to elevate it in the esteem of Kentucky voters.

This year they are out of issues again.

Ask them about the 29 wars now going on in Europe.

Ask them about Article Ten, which would keep this country constantly at war.

Ask them about sacrificing all our forefathers won for us.

Ask them about surrendering the Constitution and our rights for a world-government of European politicians and self-seekers.

Ask them about war waste, about profiteering, about the aeroplane and munitions scandals, about squandering of billions, about one-man rule.

Like a tin talking-machine, they answer: "Join the League!"

On the League of Nations, on the record of their national administrators, on any and every important issue, they cannot even talk back. They have no ground to stand upon.

Such has been the case with them year after year. But when they have found it impossible to defend themselves, or to stand squarely before the people on important issues, they have done what no doubt appeared to them to be the "next best thing."

Mud. That's it. The Democratic machine, false-face and all, will deal in it in Kentucky this year. Watch them. They have already begun.

Details are not necessary. These efforts will be recognized by the people, just as they were recognized last year.

The rebuke will come on November second.

STUDY ALL BSEEDS OF LIVE STOCK IN SHORT COURSE

College of Agriculture Offers Short Course in the Study of Live Stock That Should Attract Many.

Lexington, Ky. —A study of beef and dairy cattle, sheep and swine will be offered to the student in the short course in practical farming to be given by the College of Agriculture, beginning November 1. Dairy cattle and sheep will be studied the first time and beef cattle and swine the second. There are on the Experiment Station farm herds of Hereford, Shorthorn, Holstein, Jersey and Guernsey cattle; Berkshire, Duroc-Jersey, and Poland China hogs and flocks of Southdown, Hampshire, Cheviot and Shropshire sheep and individual representatives of other breeds.

The origin, history and development of the more important breeds of livestock with special reference to their adaptation to Kentucky conditions will be offered in the animal husbandry courses. The course in principles of feeding embraces an elementary study of digestion and assimilation and the use of digestible nutrients in the production of bone, muscle, fat, milk, and work. Training will be given in the compounding of rations for different kinds of animals and a study will be made of the feed stuffs grown on the farm and offered to the general or local market.

A more advanced study of feeds and their relation to livestock management will be offered in the course on livestock feeding which is given the second term. Feeding experiments will be investigated and observations made as to the feeding and care of the pure bred livestock as well as the various feeding experiments in progress on the Experiment Station farm. The study in feeding will be directed by E. J. Wilford.

A systematic study of feeding, care and housing of beef cattle for the market and for feeding purposes will be made under the direction of J. C. Grimes, and the students will get the benefit of careful experiments which have been carried on with beef cattle. The fitting, care and management of breeding and fat cattle for the sale and show ring will be given attention. The student's laboratory will consist of practical work in the care and handling of beef cattle.

The production, growing, fitting, finishing and marketing of sheep and swine will form an interesting course of study in the sheep and pork production course. In connection with this course a study of production, grading and marketing of wool will be taken up while the laboratory work will consist of practical work in the care and management of sheep and swine, fitting them for sale and showing and handling the wool.

The breeding of farm animals course will be of special interest to many students in the short course. This work will consist of the care and management of stud animals; the method of improving farm stock by selection, grading, inbreeding and line breeding, the laws of heredity, and the like, which will be taught by Prof. W. S. Anderson.

MELANCHOLY WOMEN

Women should understand that melancholy, commonly called the "Blues," is in nine times out of ten a pure symptom of some organic derangement which should have attention. For nearly forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for such conditions, as proved by many testimonials which we are constantly publishing from women who have been restored to health by its use.

UNCLE TED'S BED-TIME STORIES

Gov. Cox Says He Is Against America First.

"Please tell us some more about what Senator Harding has been saying in his speeches, Uncle Ted. You haven't told us anything about that for a long time." It was Ruth this time, begging for a story. In fact ever since the women have been given the right to vote she has taken every opportunity to get ahead of her brother in every possible way.

"I am mighty glad you suggested that, Ruth, because I want to show you the difference between the way our next President talks about America and the way in which Gov. Cox refers to the subject. As I have been telling you for a long time, Senator Harding has no use for the world club plan and he is going to fight it every minute he gets and as long as it is necessary. But Gov. Cox not only follows Mr. Wilson in every particular so far as the world club goes but more than that he said in a recent speech at Reno, Nevada, that 'America First,' the great battle cry of all true Americans who would place this country again on a basis of government by the Constitution, was simply like the German slogan, 'Deutschland Uber Alles,' which means Germany over all. The whole thing came up when Gov. Cox, during his speech asked the question, 'Is there any man or woman in this audience who knows where Senator Harding stands on the league of nations?' I guess Mr. Cox didn't expect an answer but he got one, for some one shouted, 'For America first.'"

"That brought the reply from Mr. Cox in which he compared 'America First' to the German slogan and then later on he said:

"If it is to be America first and you are going to isolate her from the rest of the world, you have to arm her to the teeth, haven't you? I will tell you what my creed is: It is Lord God Almighty first."

"Now of course, Mr. Cox knows very well that we do not have to arm to the teeth any more than we have armed in the past and he cannot make excuses for his slur against 'America First' by quoting what he says in his creed. Certainly Mr. Cox cannot compare 'America First' with the German slogan unless he thinks we favor a world conquest such as the Germans tried in 1914. The fact that Gov. Cox referred to Germany as an 'isolated power' before the great war shows that he must think that America would become an isolated power in nationalism or love and devotion to our country should prevail above any world club plan."

"What has Senator Harding had to say in answer to this?" asked Jack.

"Senator Harding," replied Uncle Ted, "has not answered these statements directly but in a recent speech made in Marion to a delegation of foreign-born citizens, he went into detail to explain just what he believes 'America First' to mean. THIRTY races were represented in the delegation to which he spoke and one of the banners which they carried read: 'Americans all for America first.' I can tell you nothing better about Senator Harding's views on the relation of 'America First' and the world club plan than to read you some of the things he said at that time. Listen to this:

"Nothing good has come from the wilful assumption to direct the affairs of Europe. No good of any kind has proceeded from such meddling in Russia. None in the case of Poland. None in the case of the Balkan states. None in the case of Rumania. On the contrary, the mistaken policy of interference has broken the drawings of good sense and spilled bad counsel and bad manners all over the world. MEDDLING ABROAD TENDS TO MAKE AMERICANS FORGET THAT THEY ARE AMERICANS. It tends to arouse the old and bitter feelings of race, of former nationality or foreign ancestry in the hearts of those who ought never to be forced to turn their hearts away from undivided loyalty and interest given to 'America First.'"

"Now, kiddies, that should be perfectly plain. Senator Harding simply means this. If we should join the world club, as we may do, should Gov. Cox ever become President, we will at once begin to mix into the business of every nation in the world. Aside from all the trouble and danger it means, in the loss of American soldiers and the loss of American money, we will begin to forget America. We will forget that we are Americans. More than that, those thousands of American citizens, good, loyal Americans who were born in foreign countries will be placed in the position of not knowing whether to agree with our stand on affairs in Europe or whether to agree with their mother country. In other words, such a policy as Woodrow Wilson has started and as Gov. Cox would carry out would not only mean constant trouble in Europe but it would eventually mean trouble right here at home."

"Believe me," spoke up Jack. "If I had a vote and up to this time didn't know whom to vote for I sure would vote against Gov. Cox and would do everything in the world to beat him."

"Yes, Jack, Gov. Cox has shown his true colors and he is for internationalism first, last and all the time. 'America First' seems to be, America last, with him."

A THOROUGH TEST

One To Convince the Most Skeptical Maysville Reader.

The test of time is the test that counts. Doan's Kidney Pills have made their reputation by effective action. The following case is typical. Maysville residents should be convinced.

The testimony is confirmed—the proof complete. Testimony like this cannot be ignored.

Mrs. John Burns, W. Second St., Maysville, says: "I was subject to severe spells of backache and other kidney trouble. They would come on every three or six months and there were times when I was confined to bed and rendered helpless. The quick and decided benefit I received from Doan's Kidney Pills was wonderful. I have never had such severe attacks since."

NO TROUBLE SINCE

Nearly thirteen years later, Mrs. Burns said: "I have the same good words of praise for Doan's Kidney Pills today as ever. I haven't needed a kidney medicine since I took them."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Burns had. Foster-Milburn Co., Maysville, Buffalo, N. Y.

POPULATION OF THE U. S. SHOWS ONLY A SLIGHT INCREASE

Increase of Population in Continental United States Is But 14.9 Per Cent. Since the Year 1910, Bureau's Report Shows.

Washington, Oct. 8.—The 1920 population of the Continental United States was announced Thursday by the census Bureau as 105,683,108. This is an increase of 13,710,842, or 14.9 per cent. since 1910.

Today's total does not include the populations of outlying possessions, which will be announced as soon as the figures for Alaska and the military and naval services abroad are tabulated.

It is estimated, however, that those possessions have 12,250,000 inhabitants so the total number of persons living under the American flag is in round numbers 118,000,000.

The figures for the Continental United States compare with 91,972,266 ten years ago and 75,994,575 twenty years ago.

The increase for the last decade, however, fell 2,266,849, or 6.1 per cent. below that of the preceding decade.

Director Rogers of the Census Bureau, in a formal statement, attributed this reduction to the almost complete stoppage of immigration during the World War, an increase in emigration during the same period, deaths in the influenza epidemics of 1917-18 and war casualties.

The statement noted that the trend of population from the country to the city had been accentuated greatly since 1910. For the first time in the country's history, it said, more than half the entire population now is living in urban territory.

HOW TO OVERCOME

That Awful Reaction Caused By Influenza.

Influenza, Grippe, or any severe sickness leaves the blood poor, thin and devalitized, and the system weak, run-down and in a nervous condition. The one great remedy to create strength after sickness is Vinol, because it contains the tissue-building elements of fresh cods' livers, aided by the blood, strength and vitality making elements of tonic iron, beef peptone and glycerinephosphates. It creates a hearty appetite, aids digestion, quickens the circulation, and every nerve organ and muscle of the body is soon filled with new strength, energy and vitality.

There are many people in this city who will tell you from personal experience what Vinol has done for them.
